Breakout Session I: The Current State of the Idaho Charter School Movement: Opportunities and Challenges.

- What is Idaho's vision for creating high quality charter schools and is this vision well-articulated and shared?
- What steps are being taken to achieve this vision and successfully communicate it with stakeholders such as students, parents, charter support organizations, advocacy groups and policy makers?
- What collaborative efforts, partnerships, resources could be leveraged at the state level to create a stronger policy environment and infrastructure for growing a successful charter school movement?
- What types of technical assistance, resources and materials are being offered to further support and assist charter developers?
- What do you perceive are the barriers, gaps and challenges to creating high quality charter schools in the state and what are some strategies that could address them?
- What data does our state currently use to evaluate charter school progress and make recommendations for change?

11:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.
